Matthew 7:1-6, 12

“To succeed in keeping the law one must aim at something other and something more. One must aim to become the kind of person from whom the deeds of the law naturally flow.”

- Dallas Willard

Matthew 7:1-6, 12

“Do not judge, or you too will be judged. For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets."

John 3:17

"God did not send His son into the world to condemn it, but to save it."

"Shamed people shame people. Long before we are criticizing others, the source of that criticism has been planted, fertilized and grown in our own lives, directed at ourselves, and often in ways we are mostly unaware of."

- Curt Thompson

John 10:10

"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full."

1 John 3:8

For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.

“The point of the parable is he is saying to his disciples, ‘Don’t push the gospel on people in such a way that they can’t digest it. Don’t be insensitive. Don’t just push truth on people in such a way which is not relevant to their concerns or is too quick or not sensitive to the pace of God in their lives. Don’t push. Don’t press. Be discerning friends. Be gentle. Be careful. Never treat two people the same.’”

- Tim Keller
